

Dear Janet,

Think this

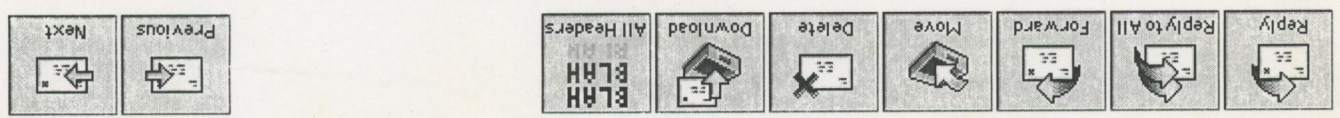

Again a ~~big~~ BIG thanks and it was fun too.

I awoke at 3:30 this morning, started to go back to sleep, suddenly flashed COFFEE, Brushes, WATERCOLOR BLOCKS and was up for the day. Feels so great.

and I have a date with Jackie. She will come to Don's apartment Thursday night or Friday ~~afternoon~~ and I really want to have a talk with her. It takes something real important to pry me out of the Starlight but this is. We will have time to talk alone on Friday and I'll bus back to the Starlight Friday evening,

So plan is Bus to downtown ~~about~~ central library 4 to 5^{on Thursday} work there until 7 and Bus up to ~~Bacon~~ Beacon Hill. The reason I tell you all this is I will have many hours on Don's computer to commence work on the stuff we talked about. Just inventoring my floppies and reorganizing my mail boxes may take all the time I have but if I get past that the next step is to start moving items from Eudora to floppies and I would need someone to step me through how to do that. Don now has a land line in his app. but it is the managers phone with remote messaging and I don't answer it but can call out. The phone cord is not long enough to reach the computer but if I get far enough along I might telephone you on Friday and take notes on how to do that. I promise not to take up much of your time and might not get that far anyway. Who knows Jackie might want to go to SSCC and register for school.
