Hey Don,

Forgot to mention I have finally learned how to find the catalog of 5,000 VHS tapes on the library computer. I will show you the next time we get to

Also Don, would you please print this out and give it to [REDACTED] next time you see her? And maybe a copy to Vanessa to take as she might see her bef

Thanks a lot.

Jim

Dear [REDACTED]

Your Father emailed me yesterday to tell me [REDACTED] Bummer.

If there is anything I can do to help let me know. I do know some people in the juvenal justice system. I will not be able to just make this go away but might be able to lighten the consequences and have some ideas to that end. Also I might be able to help you get set up with a good probation officer, caseworker... stuff like that if you were busted in King County. I would like to talk to you about it.

You can email me and I will meet you anywhere. My email address is in your Dads AOL address book. OR, you can just come and look me up in the Starlight Hotel. I am almost always here and will leave a note on my door if gone for more then an hour, OK? Here is directions.

Take a bus to BALLARD. From Northgate transit center take a # 75.

From the U. District take a # 44 on 45th. From Beacon Hill take a # 36 (ask for a transfer) and get off at 3 rd and S. Jackson, walk down S. Jackson past Tom Putnams studio to First Ave. and catch a # 18. On any of these get off on Markett St. and Ballard Ave. - a main transfer point- get off and walk three blocks down Ballard Ave. to Vernon Place and the Starlight is on the corner across from the Olympic gym and up from and across from Hatties Hat resturant. The address is 5300 Ballard Ave. N.W. and it is a two story mustard colored building with a green top that says BANK BUILDING on the corner, right above my windows. There is a handpainted blue sign that says The Starlight Hotel at street level. I am in room 201, the corner room on the second floor. Two of my windows face Ballard Ave. and two fave Vernon Pl. and the second from the corner is always
