Dear Janet.

Here is the second half of my letter;
'Margann'. I took it to the library today, worked on it eight or nine minutes, lost it and did it again. In forty two minutes I had it all keyboard entered. I hit send and got the error message. I can not move on with my life until I send you this. It is not important. It is trivial and stupid. But I started it and had to finish it to get back to drawing, so here it is.
I am sorry I am so out-of-step with everything.
I will never go to the library again nor ever open my endora account.

Much love,
