Dearest Janet,

It was so great to have branch with you, Edward and Philip on Sunday. Three of my best friends. Phil said he enjoyed it greatly too.

I am loaning you my textbook from my Intro class.
I will eventually want it back but no hurry. I swear I have read it more often than any other book, save for poetry.
And it is really good, Janet, the best, and I have read most of them. It is very simply and straightforwardly written.
Considering the subject it is really an enjoyable and easy read. I recommend you at least skim it all; although some of it you will already know and some of it will be of little interest.

It is all the basics in bite-sized chunks!

Enjoy,

Jim Acorn
