

MECHANICAL RESEARCH TECHNICIAN and ELECTRONICS TECHNICIAN

Department of Materials and the Interdisciplinary Research Centre in Biomedical Materials

MECHANICAL RESEARCH TECHNICIAN (98164)

Applications are invited for this post to support teaching and research in the Department of Materials and the Interdisciplinary Research Centre in Biomedical Materials. You will be responsible for novel materials test specimen preparation, for the design and manufacture of test jigs and will be involved with researchers in the processing of novel materials.

You should be educated to at least Advanced City and Guilds level or equivalent and have at least 10 years experience in mechanical workshop design and manufacturing

ELECTRONICS TECHNICIAN (98165)

Applications are invited for this post to support the Departments' of Engineering, Materials and the Interdisciplinary Research Centre in Biomedical Materials. You will maintain and repair electronic equipment and design and build new equipment required for research and teaching. You will be responsible for testing electrical equipment and maintaining records as required by the 'Electricity at Work' regulations.

You will work at component level in the above fields and should be educated to at least Advanced City and Guilds level or equivalent, have at least 15 years experience in the repair and building of equipment, not only state-of-the-art, but also older items.

The salary for both of the above posts is in the range £18,088 - £22,306 pa. Inclusive, depending on experience. Benefits include 27 days holiday.

For an application form and further details please telephone our 24-hour Recruitment Line on 0171-975-5171 or email coll-recruit@qmw.ac.uk quoting the relevant Reference No.

Completed application forms should be returned by 2 October 1998

If you apply for this position, please say you saw it FIRST on jobs.ac.uk