

London

THOMAS GRAY
THE CAMBRIDGE
CAT

POST CARD

She lives at Pembroke College and was named after the 18th century Pembroke poet who wrote "Ode on a Favourite Cat, Drowned in a tub of Gold Fish". She has also inspired a book by an American Professor.

FOR CORRESPONDENCE

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Dear Button,
last night I went to a rave @ Kennington Oval (and I was tired from my presentation at the conference) and a grey cat came and got into my Lap. (out of 200 people I guess I'm a cat person - love
Tim Acord reminds me of Eddie)

Distributed by Postcard Warehouse 0181-813-8557

FB
25

Button Galore
2916 Date Street
Honolulu, HI
96815

U.S.A.

