Peter W. Bevis: Sculptor,

I hear from a variety of sources that you have won a court case that lets you keep Fremont Fine Arts Foundry (Jay Gore, Philip Schuyler, Paul Luksch, Deborah Moffit, Don Carver, Andy and Sandra, et cetera). Congratulations and I hope that is what you wanted.

Anyway, I would like to get together and talk to you about something that involves FFAF. Could I buy you lunch or dinner at the Two Bells sometime at your convenience? Just about any time is good for me but I might suggest that Earl Brooks, who moved to Sacramento a few months ago without his girlfriend, is playing a gig at the Bells on Saturday night, the 30th of August. Earl said it was to be a release party for his new CD.

So I am hoping that we can get together and let me know, okay?
