PS,

Things have changed tonight. Linley called and we finally have a time for her to give me some computer lesions. As a family of four with school, soccer, etc. and me with intermittent doctor's appointments we have been at this for a couple of months.

I'm taking the Sounder down to Puyallup Thursday afternoon the 14th; Linley picking me up at the station. I'll stay Thursday and Friday nights and then the Galores will drive down on Saturday and we will all go to the U-Pick Pumpkin Patch. I was a part of the pumpkin patch outing a couple of years ago.

After an evening of jack'o lantern carving I'll ride back to Seattle with Janet and Edward Saturday night.

So I'll be back on Sunday and Monday for a chance to catch a coffee and maybe some art… although I bet Vermillion is closed Sundays and Mondays. Most galleries are.

So keep me posted on your plans.

Jim
