Dear Britt,

It was so good to see you on Thanksgiving and have a visit. It sounds like you are thriving in Portland. I hear it is a pretty cool city.

Your mother's new friend David seems nice and it is fun to see them flirting. When your mother called the other night I told her I thought David had passed the test.

We are having a cold snap in Seattle but the days have been sunny and beautiful. Dressed warm, I go for a lot of walks. I really have grown to like the neighborhood I am in: On the boarder between Chinatown and Pioneer Square. Sometime when you are up I'll take you out for a Dim Sum lunch in Chinatown. I know all the good places.

Be sure to let me know when you are coming up again, maybe over Christmas. It is always good to see you.

Everything best,

Jim
