Carey – handwritten for coins.

Can't tell you how good it was to visit with you and see Mutual Release before that long flight home. In my usual, absent minded way I put all my change in my suitcase for going through the metal detectors and completely forgot about it when I changed my money in Seattle. Please accept it to cover the mailing cost of the Francis Bacon catalog. I'll write when I get back on Seattle time.

Jim