What a marvelous 66th birthday. A dim sum lunch at House of Hong and then the Picasso show at the Seattle Art Museum with the lovely Vanessa Carver. The exhibit wasn't as big as I expected but heavy on quality. I especially loved his drawings and prints. We finished off the afternoon with coffee at Zeitgeist. Truly a happy birthday.