PS,

This welcome home may be a bit premature but I figure you are due back soon, so welcome home! I bet there is a cat glad to see you and Kinza. When I am gone many days Miss Sneezey is first mad at me and yowls at me; then won't leave me alone for wanting attention.

Drop me a line when you get your feet back under you in Seattle. I can't wait to get together and hear some stories.

Jim Bob
